Terms and Conditions

IMI International Management Institute Switzerland reserves the right to alter dates, fees and programme details without prior notice. IMI also reserves the right to cancel a programme as a result of forces outside of our control or insufficient student numbers. In such an event, alternatives will be offered or a full refund of fees paid will be made. All health and accident insurance coverage for the duration of the programme is the responsibility of the participant. IMI accepts no liability for accidents occurring during the participant's stay on campus or on one of the activities/excursions attended as part of the programme. IMI shall be entitled to use cinematographic or photographic material taken during the programme for publicity materials.

Cancellation: For cancellations received more than 60 days before the programme start date, 50% of all fees paid will be refunded. For cancellations received less than 60 days before course start date, no fees will be refunded. In the case of a visa application being rejected, all fees paid will be refunded minus a 250 CHF administration charge.
